

GREAT BANQUET GIVEN IN HONOR OF WILSON IN BUCKINGHAM PLACE

No Setting More Regal Than That Which Greeted Distinguished Guests—King George Pays High Tribute to American President.

LONDON, Dec. 27.—No more regal setting had ever been arranged in Buckingham Palace than that which greeted President and Mrs. Wilson when they were escorted into the banquet hall tonight for the precedent breaking state dinner.

Every royal formality which had attended epochal occasions at the palace for two or three hundred years was carried out before and during the banquet. President Wilson with Queen Mary led the procession into the dining hall, preceded by officials of the palace splendidly costumed, bearing wands and walking backwards and making obeisance to the guests.

Immediately behind the president and the queen came King George and Mrs. Wilson. They were followed by members of the royal family.

At the head of the table twelve persons were seated with King George in the middle. President Wilson sat at the king's right and Mrs. Wilson on his left. To the right of President Wilson was Queen Mary and then the French ambassador, Prince Christian, the Spanish ambassador and Princess Patricia, daughter of the Duke of Connaught. At Mrs. Wilson's left sat Princess Mary, the Italian ambassador, Princess Beatrice and the Japanese ambassador in the order named.

The American ambassador, John W. Davis, had the first place at a side rectangular table on President Wilson's right.

Guests Escorted from Apartments. Prior to the dinner President and Mrs. Wilson were escorted from their apartments to the great white drawing room where the royal family had gathered with their other guests. These guests were presented to President and Mrs. Wilson and the dinner party immediately proceeded to the dining hall. The scene was one of splendor. In the dining saloon was a great collection of solid gold plate and huge gold ornaments valued at fifteen million dollars. These had been brought from the vaults for the occasion. One of three buffets contained pieces of plate too large or otherwise too cumbersome for use. These included one piece of great size taken from the wreck of the Spanish Armada.

In color the gold laden table blended with the decorations in the hall which are white and gold with crimson carpet and upholstery to match. The crimson effect was further carried out by the exclusive use of poinsettias as floral decorations. In the balcony at the end of the room was a military orchestra not hidden from view by floral or other decorations. The attendants were in full state dress which was heavy with gold lace. The banquet hall which is 200 feet long by 75 feet wide, was approached by the guests thru a state hallway appointed for the occasion. The hall was long and narrow, furnished and decorated with paintings and porcelain. The banquet hall occasionally is used for banquets and other purposes has a throne at one end.

The main table was arranged so that the backs of President Wilson and King George were toward the throne.

Decorations Striking. The decorations seemed strikingly simple when compared with the regal table. The only art on the walls was one gilded tapestry. On each side six cut glass chandeliers hung from the extremely high ceiling, but for the banquet tonight 128 candles in gold candelabra each surrounded by a pink silk shade were used. Other light was obtained from fancy wall fixtures. The general body of the guests preceded the royal family and the presidential and ambassadorial guests into the banquet hall. They rose and remained standing while the main guests and the hosts entered in procession. Heading the procession was the Lord Chamberlain and Lord Steward and other officials in state regalia. Yeoman of the Guard in red Elizabethan costumes and with halberds were in attendance.

Pays Tribute to Wilson. In his speech at the state banquet to President Wilson at Buckingham Palace tonight, King George said:

"This is an historic moment and your visit marks an historic epoch. Nearly 150 years have passed since your republic began its independent life and now, for the first time, a president of the United States is our guest in England."

"We welcome you to the country whence came your ancestors and where stands the homes of those from whom sprang Washington and Lincoln. We welcome you for yourself, as one whose insight, calmness and dignity in the discharge of his high duties we have watched with admiration. We see in you the happy union of the gifts of a scholar with those of a statesman. You came from the studios, academic quiet into the full stream of an arduous public life and your deliverances have combined breadth of view and nobility—embody the spirit of two great nations and whatever strength I have, and whatever authority I possess it only so long and so far as I express the spirit and purpose of the American people.

"Every influence that the American people have over the affairs of the world is measured by their sympathy with the aspirations of free men everywhere."

"America does love freedom, and I believe she loves freedom unselfishly. But if she does not she will not and cannot help the influence to which she justly aspires."

Ideals Are Alike. "I have had the privilege, sir, of conferring with the leaders of your own government and with the spokesman of the government of France and of Italy and I am glad to say I have the same conceptions that they have of the significance and scope of the duty on which we have met."

"We have used great words, all of us have used the great words 'right' and 'justice' and now we must prove whether or not we understand them and how they are to be applied to the particular settlements which must conclude this war. And we must not only understand them but we must have the courage to act upon our understanding. Yet after I have uttered the word 'courage' it comes into my mind that it would take more courage to resist the great moral tide now running in the world than to yield to it, than to obey it. This is a great tide running in the hearts of men. The hearts of men have never been so singularly in unison before. Men have never before been so conscious of their brotherhood. Men have never realized how little difference there was between right and justice in one latitude and in another under one sovereignty and under another."

Right and Justice for All. "And it will be our high privilege, sir, not only to apply the moral judgment of the world to the particular settlements which we shall attempt but also to organize the moral force of the world to preserve those settlements to steady the forces of mankind and to make the right and justice to which great nations like our own have devoted themselves, the predominant and controlling force of the world."

"There is something inspiring in knowing this is the errand that we have come on. Nothing less than this would have justified me in leaving the important tasks which fall upon me upon the other side of the sea—nothing but the consciousness that something else compares with this in dignity and importance."

Therefore it is the more delightful to find myself in the company of a body of men united in ideal and purpose and to feel that I am privileged to unite my thoughts with yours in carrying forward these standards which we are so proud to hold so high and to defend."

"May I not, sir, with a feeling of profound sincerity and friendship and sympathy, propose your health and the health of the queen and the prosperity of Great Britain?"

HOOPER REFUSES RELIEF TO GERMANY

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Food Administrator Hoover, in Europe, arranging relief for the peoples of the war devastated countries, has refused in emphatic terms to discuss Germany's food conditions with Baron von der Lancken and Dr. Rieth, who sought a meeting with the food administrator. A message from Paris today said these two German officials who were prominent in the German administration of Belgium wired from Berlin to Walter Lyman Brown, director of the commission for relief in Belgium at Rotterdam that they had been appointed by the German government to negotiate with Mr. Hoover for food supplies and that they desired Mr. Hoover to advise them when and where he would meet them.

In answer to the request for a conference, Mr. Hoover sent this message:

"You can describe two and a half years of arrogance toward ourselves and cruelty to the Belgians in any language you may select and tell the pair personally to go to hell with my compliments. If I do have to deal with Germans it will not be with that pair."

ARGUES AGAINST PROHIBITION

BALTIMORE, Md., Dec. 27.—In address upon the legal and constitutional aspects of the proposed prohibition amendment to the federal constitution now before the people for action, Seymour C. Loomis, of New Haven, Conn., secretary of the Social and Economic Science League, argued against the ratification of amendment at today's meeting of the association.

DOCTOR GREER DEAD

Danville, Ill., Dec. 27.—Dr. Henry A. Greer, 39, president of the Illinois Veterinary Society, died here today from cerebral hemorrhage. He had a reputation of being one of the most brilliant animal surgeons in the country.

REMARKABLE LETTER SENT TO FORMER EMPEROR

Startling Revelations Made Public By Monaco Prince

PARIS, Dec. 27.—Prince Albert of Monaco has given to The Associated Press a remarkable letter he has addressed to former Emperor William which promises to rival the notable revelations made by Prince Lichnowsky, German ambassador at London at the outbreak of the war and Dr. Muelon, the former Krupp director.

The letter gives textually many conversations with the ex-emperor on his war projects and also a number of letters addressed to the prince as "My Dear Cousin" and signed "Your Highness."

"Devoted friend, Cousin and Admirer, William I. R." The conversations cover years of close intimacy during which Prince Albert was a frequent guest of the emperor at Berlin and Kiel and at the emperor's summer palace on the island of Corfu. The prince's letter "to his majesty William II," addresses the former German ruler directly through as "sire." It recalls their conversations in which the emperor expressed his ideas for Germany's future and gives the successive steps in which he yielded to the military element.

Explaining the purposes of his letter Prince Albert writes: "I speak with sincerity after seventeen years of effort to enlighten you upon the only path which would maintain the rival nations within the limits of justice and dignity and would reunite the peace interests of France and Germany. I speak with firmness of soul in revolt against the spectacle of the plot of the force to annihilate all the beauties of civilization and the conquests of man over the brute."

Injustice Done. "It was open to you to become the greatest figure of all time if you had chosen the path of repairing the injustice weighing on Europe and given your high authority to the ideals of right, justice and peace to which mankind now is eagerly turning. But instead you maintained the brutal customs of a military monarchy until Germany's blood had been won world power based on civilization has dragged you down in its false ideas of blind folly."

"Altho you said to me one day that it was not your right to take a certain action which would have conserved world peace, yet you told me on the yacht Meteor on June 28, 1914, in learning of the assassination of Archduke Ferdinand, 'now I must do everything over again.'"

"History will recognize in these two manifestations of your conscience the truth of your responsibility for a deliberate war. In an interview I had with you on the same yacht on the morning of the same day I noted certain points disclosing your real purposes. When I said to you that I believed the majority of the French supported the idea of a rapprochement with Germany, you answered me with unusual emphasis: 'Yes, but we must hurry or else it will be too late and other arrangements will be necessary to establish the position of the nations of Europe. Here are the Anglo-Saxons understanding their true interests and trying to group themselves in joint protection against the yellow race. Even this year President Wilson and England have used diplomatic language. They understand also that there is nothing to do with Germany than to accept her as she is.'"

Relates Conversation. The prince then relates a sensational conversation in which the emperor pointing to a British squadron visiting Kiel, foresaw the coming of the war of the world.

"The transformation of your mentality became evident to me in June, 1914, when upon the deck of the Hohenzollern at Kiel you said to me with irritation as you saw the English squadron coming to salute you: 'If they oblige me to make war the world will see what it is never known before.'"

"Your mind seemed touched with a last gleam of foresight as these ferocious views took form. Perhaps you still wished to resist the monstrous obsession of those demanding war, for you added: 'Upon those ships where English officers are about to laugh and dance with our young women they seem very far from dreaming of making war.'"

Prince Albert then relates numerous conversations when the Russian emperor proposed an international court at The Hague. "You disclosed to me one day your last thoughts upon this noble movement in remarking to me with a smile that you were happy to participate in the Czar's conferences but did so by appointing as your delegate the most vigorous German general."

In another talk with Emperor William, the prince says the emperor remarked that he had the Russian czar in his hands. In this connection Prince Albert writes: "In a series of crimes, for which Germany must bear responsibility there is one which will revolt humanity for all times. Nicholas II was incapable of lying or betraying his allies. He wished to perform his duties, not agreeing with your wishes altho you told me you held him in your hands. Nicholas eluded your suggestions but was assassinated by your Bolshevik accomplices without your intervening to save him."

Tribute To Skill And Courage Of Gen. MacArthur

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—A striking tribute to the courage and skill of Brigadier General Douglas MacArthur, commanding the 8th Brigade of the 42nd (Rainbow) division, was given by Major General Charles T. Meagher, formerly in command of the division, during a second promotion of General MacArthur to the rank of Major General.

A copy of the communication has just reached Washington. It reviewed the record of General MacArthur, first, as chief of staff of the division and later as commander of one of its two infantry brigades and disclosed that the young officer, a major of engineers when the United States entered the war, had been twice wounded, had been decorated by both the French and American governments for personal gallantry in action and in addition had been twice recommended for the French legion of honor. The account of General MacArthur's services included the statement that the 42nd division sustained the full brunt of the German drive in the Champagne last July, and that it was the skill and personal supervision of this officer which made possible a great victory. Later during the Alsace-Marne offensive the 42nd was driving toward the Vesle when an incident occurred which General Meagher described as follows:

Does Heroic Work. "At the end of this phase of the divisions employment, when it had labored night and day for over a week and was brought forward in numbers by vigorous resistance to the assaults from exceptionally powerful positions, occurred an example of leadership and the high qualities of command which I consider as unique. General MacArthur, himself on the advanced line at a time when the American first army corps had not ordered the division to advance accurately diagnosed the situation as one in which the enemy had but an hour before broken contact. In advance of orders and without delay, he with my concurrence, an early hour galvanized the entire division into a prompt pursuit which soon brought it on the very heels of the enemy and gained possession of the great mass of the French of Noyelles."

General Meagher shows that it was General MacArthur's brigade which broke the Kriemhilde position, in the fighting north of Verdun and with the capture of Cote de Chatillon and adjacent heights and adds: "In fairness I wish to say that after having attained the Cote de Chatillon by three days' constant fighting, General MacArthur has so husbanded and controlled his brigade that with unused battalions he stood ready to exploit this success immediately if it had been ordered."

PLANES ARRIVE SAFELY AT INDIANAPOLIS

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Dec. 27.—Word was received at Scott Field, Belleville, Ill., tonight that the airplane carrying two army officers, which was thought to be snowbound somewhere between Belleville and Indianapolis, Ind., arrived safely at Indianapolis, at 3 o'clock this afternoon two hours after leaving the field.

Two planes, enroute from Houston, Texas, to Detroit, Mich., and which have been held up at Scott Field ten days because of inclement weather, left the field at 1 o'clock for Indianapolis. One of the planes returned shortly after starting because of the snow and the pilot reported he had lost track of the other machine.

WILSON UNABLE TO VISIT NORTHAMPTON

LONDON, Dec. 27.—In declining an invitation of the mayor of Northampton to visit that town, President Wilson wrote: "I would, if I could come to Northampton, not only with pleasure, but with the feeling that I was making a pious pilgrimage to that particular part of England most directly associated with the great mayor of Washington, but I would not be entitled to do homage there if I did not act as I suppose General Washington would act and do nothing which took me away from my special duties which brought me across the water."

"My visit to Great Britain must be very brief. The only place I can take time to visit is my mother's birthplace, which, I understand I can visit without interfering with the special objects of my errand."

MISKE DEFEATS CHRISTIE

Milwaukee, Wis., Dec. 27.—Billy Miske, 31st. Paul, outboxed Gus Christie of Milwaukee in every round of a ten round no-decision boxing contest tonight. The men fought at catch weights, Miske at 155 lb., having 21 pounds the advantage.

LLOYD - GEORGE AND WILSON IN LONG CONFERENCE

Go Into Details at Length at Premier's Home.

LONDON, Dec. 27.—Premier Lloyd George accompanied by Sir Maurice Hankey, secretary to the committee on imperial defense, arrived at Buckingham palace at 10:30 o'clock this morning for a conference with President Wilson. The day was dark and rainy but a big crowd gathered before the palace before the premier made his appearance.

Mr. Wilson was there early this morning and was busy with his secretary. There were a number of American callers and the duke of Connaught and Sir Richard Herschel visited the palace before the arrival of the premier. A. J. Balfour, secretary of state for foreign affairs, walked over from the foreign office to attend the conference between Mr. Lloyd George and the president.

Invited to Premier's Home. The company invited to meet President Wilson for the luncheon arranged to be held today at Premier Lloyd George's residence comprised a small gathering of elder statesmen, the personnel including the leaders in the last and the present government and the heads of three of the political parties, conservative, liberal and labor.

The luncheon gave occasion for the first visit by former Premier Asquith to the premier's official residence since the liberal leader resigned his office. Viscount Morley, another of the party, retired from the Asquith cabinet at the beginning of the war on account of his opposition to Great Britain's participation in the struggle. Viscount Gray, still another of those invited, has been living almost in retirement since he left the cabinet. He is one of the strongest advocates of a league of nations. Arthur Henderson, the labor leader, also a guest, is likewise a supporter of the idea of a league of nations as advanced by President Wilson.

The president's conference with Premier Lloyd George and Foreign Secretary Balfour lasted until close upon 1:30 o'clock when the conferees left in separate motor cars for the premier's residence in Downing street.

It was 1:40 o'clock when the president drove up to No. 10 Downing street. He was given an enthusiastic greeting from the crowd. Downing street was thronged with as many people as could find standing room on the sidewalk in front of the foreign office, across from the premier's house.

LANCERON GUESTS.

Of the luncheon guests, including representatives of all parties the earl of Reading was the first to arrive. He was followed by former Premier Asquith, the marquis of Crewe, John W. Davis, the American ambassador, Earl Curzon and Viscount Bryce.

The president himself, who was detained at the conference in Buckingham palace, came next and after him Arthur Henderson, the labor leader and Andrew Bonar Law, chancellor of the exchequer.

As soon as the president's car reached the outskirts of the city, it turned into Whitehall and turned into Downing street, a great cheer was raised. The car drew up at No. 10, about a hundred yards up Downing street. Rear Admiral Grayson, who escorted the president, stepped out and was followed by the president himself.

President Wilson, smiling genially, raised his hat and bowed. The crowd cried for a speech but the president smiling and waving his hand disappeared into the house.

ENTRANCE ROOM DECORATED

The entrance room was decorated with palms and red and white flowers. Strips of red carpet were laid from the door of the sidewalk. Altho it rained during the morning none felt during the president's drive from the palace.

From the public buildings in Whitehall and from the foreign office and number 10, the Stars and Stripes and the Union Jack waved together.

GOVERNMENT GOODS WILL NOT BE DUMPED ON MARKET

Chicago, Dec. 27.—L. H. Hartman who is looking after the surplus stocks of the government, told Chicago business men at a luncheon today that the goods will not be dumped on the market. They will instead be disposed of in a way to leave the general market unimpaired, he said.

Urge Change In Illinois School Revenue Laws

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Dec. 27.—Changes in Illinois School revenue laws would make possible largely increased funds for school purposes in the state were urged in resolutions adopted here today by governing committees of the Illinois State Teachers' Association.

Plans were set on foot for a delegate convention of the state body between now and February 1, the regular session having been called off on account of the influenza epidemic. The call will be issued later by the officers of the organization who will hold their positions until their successors are named.

Among the resolutions adopted by the committees were the following:

Calling for a state distributive fund of $10,000,000.

Providing for a county school apportionment on the basis of minor population.

Advocating amendment of the school revenue law to take operating expenses from the building fund and increase the levy for educational purposes to three per cent by popular vote provided the aggregate levy be not in excess of four per cent.

Approving a half mill tax for the support of state normal schools.

Creating a state director of physical education with facilities for correcting physical defects in school children.

Amending compulsory attendance law to provide that children between fourteen and 15 years of age who are employed attend "continuation schools" at least eight hours a week.

Favoring a minimum salary for teachers of $800 a year.

LETTER DISAPPEARS FROM COURT

CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—District Attorney Charles F. Cline, caused a stir in the trial of five Socialist leaders charged with violation of the espionage law today when he reported to Federal Judge Landis that an important letter introduced in evidence by the government had mysteriously disappeared. The document was described as the German code letter read to the jury in connection with the testimony of Private Arnold Schiller, one of the government's principal witnesses, who told of plans for an underground railway to smuggle Socialist draft evaders into Mexico. The missing letter is alleged to have been written to Schiller by William F. Kruse, national secretary of the Young People's Socialist League and one of the defendants in the case. Schiller testified that a notation made by him on the bottom of the letter was a German code used by Socialists in the fight against the enforcement of the selective draft law. Kruse denied having made the notation.

AVIATORS TRAVEL THRU SNOW STORM

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 27.—The first of three airplanes flying from Houston, Texas, to Detroit, Mich., to map out aerial mail routes, arrived here late this afternoon from Belleville, Ill.

Lieutenant D. M. Jones and Lieut. Hill left Belleville at 1:15 p. m. and made the 230 miles in two hours, being compelled to fly very low because of the snow, storms encountered nearly all the way. They will await the arrival of two airplanes before starting the next leg of their journey to Dayton, Ohio.

MISSIONARIES MEET.

New York, Dec. 27.—Representatives of virtually all important missionary organizations of the United States and Canada assembled here today to discuss plans looking toward more unified control educational and religious propaganda which will be presented at the annual meeting of the foreign missions conference and home missions council in January. The foreign and home mission boards of the Methodist Episcopal church and the Presbyterian church, the foreign mission board of the Southern Presbyterian church, the congress of the laymen's missionary movement, the Baptist church missions, the Y. M. C. A., and the Y. W. C. A., were represented.

IRALSON JEWELRY LOSS REDUCED

Chicago, Dec. 27.—The value of jewels seized by robbers who entered the jewelry store of Moses Iralson in the Chicago Savings Bank building Christmas eve, shrank from $100,000, named in the first report to $58,434 today. The latter value was placed by accountants who went over the records of the place at the instance of insurance companies. It was stated that the store was insured for $50,000. Thus far the police have developed no clues upon which to base arrests.

RUSS SITUATION WILL BE LEFT TO CONFERENCE

Misunderstanding Over Statement of Pichon

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Officials of the American government here expressed the belief today that Stephen Pichon, the French foreign minister was voicing his own opinion and not the policy of the French government when he said there would be no immediate intervention in Russia by the Allied governments.

The Russian situation has been the subject of earnest discussion by the representatives at Paris of the associated nations, but so far as is known none of the governments has put forward any definite plans. The understanding here is that the whole subject will be left to the peace conference. It was reiterated today that the allied powers have no desire to interfere with the internal affairs of Russia and that if any aggressive action is determined upon object will be solely to curb a menace to the peace of the world.

Additional reports of the chaotic conditions in Bolshevik controlled European Russia reached the state department today. One account said the loyal militia of Estonia and Livonia, poorly equipped and with little or no training, was in no condition to withstand the attacks of the Bolsheviks. Some of the Bolshevik forces in this section were said to be well supplied with machine guns, tanks and armored cars.

Riga, Reval and Limbach were reported as crowded with refugees from the surrounding country and officials of the British naval forces in the Baltic have suggested that the aged, the children and the sick be moved to the island of Osel in the Gulf of Riga where, it was said 100,000 refugees could be cared for.

FORCES NUMBER 500,000.

Advices reaching the state department today from Bucharest said the main force of the Bolshevik army in Russia consisted of 500,000 Russian soldiers freed to join the Bolsheviks because of fear of starvation, former Austro-Hungarian prisoners of war, 50,000 men from the Balkan provinces and 40,000 Chinese workmen.

The Russian embassy received a report today from the minister of foreign affairs of the Russian government at Omsk that Siberian troops commanded by General Pecheloff captured the city of Perm, Dec. 24. This was said to give the loyal Russians command of the railroad between Petrograd and Siberia from the Ural mountains to Perm and to extend their control over European Russia to a point nearly the farthest advanced line of the government of the north at Archangel.

More than 8,000 Bolsheviks were taken prisoner during the day's fighting, the message said and a great quantity of booty, particularly guns and munition captured. It also was reported that a large number of Bolshevik red guards were cut off between Perm and Kungur.

AMATEUR FLYERS WRECK AIRPLANE

DODGE CITY, Kans., Dec. 27.—Amateur aviators of Norton, Kans., today wrecked an army airplane stored there by Lieutenant L. R. Starr of Scott Field, Belleville, Ill., member of a party of three airmen mapping aerial mail routes in this region. Lieut. Starr had been called home unexpectedly and left his plane in Norton. His companions and a civil instructor came on to Dodge City where word of the accident reached them tonight.

The message stated that the persons who used the airplane succeeded in getting it off the ground, but that the results were disastrous.

A CHANCE TO LOOK BACKWARD.

Thus far watch night services for New Year's eve have not been announced by Jacksonville churches. The time was when practically every church in the city had such a service and possibly several of them are contemplated now. What is more likely is a union service and that would be more in the spirit of the times. Watch night services as a rule are colored mainly with expressions of thankfulness for past blessings and certainly there are many to remember this year.

How would you like to have $32,000 as a Christmas present? This is said to have been the sum distributed among the sons and daughters of one well known Jacksonville family. The goodly sum represented a profit in farm lands on an investment made some years ago. Most people have no way of knowing how it would "feel" to share in such a distribution but they somehow know that it would be a "feel" of grand and glorious kind.

A VAST DEMAND.

Even though there may be stored up supplies of grain and other products in Australia and South America, when figures from Herbert Hoover's reports are considered there doesn't seem to be any possibility of a surplus or of any immediate lowering of prices. Mr. Hoover estimates that it will be necessary to ship 180,000,000 tons of supplies a month into Belgium alone. Then there must be shipments to France and Germany and an immense tonnage of foodstuffs has been promised to Finland. Prospects are good for a continued extraordinary demand for foodstuffs from the U. S.

QUALIFIED FOR NEW WORK.

Hugh S. Magill, who is soon to assume his duties as one of the directors of the savings division of the treasury department at Washington, is well qualified for that important position. His work will be related to thrift education in the schools of the U. S., as the government purposes to continue the war savings stamp plan during the days of peace in order to teach children in the schools habits of thrift and economy. Mr. Magill justly ranks as one of the foremost educators of the state. His interest in education is genuine and thorough and he is altogether a man of broad and practical vision.

Members of the Quincy chamber of commerce after a long and insistent struggle have won out and the C. B. & Q. railroad has replaced certain trains that were discontinued as a war measure. Quincy men are also after the Wabash in an effort to have trains put on again which were abolished by the new time card.

RAILROAD SERVICE.

Here in Jacksonville merchants and private citizens have rebelled a good deal about the discontinuance of the trains but nothing has been done. It is in such instances that the need of a business men's association, chamber of commerce or whatever else you wish to call an organization of business men, is greatly needed. Railroads are not apt to restore trains or make more advantageous service unless a real interest is shown by the people themselves.

ALL IN THE FAMILY.

Who said there is a lack of cordial feeling between the U. S. and England? Anyone who thinks that way should read the telegraph stories of the wild enthusiasm with which President Wilson was greeted in London. The English people are not accounted as sentimental or much given to boisterous display of their feelings, but certainly the enthusiasm shown for the head of the American nation was of a genuine kind. Perhaps not all English people or all Americans have forgotten the differences of the past, but the relationships built up by the war served to again bring to mind that after all, England and America are of one stock and stem. British enthusiasm and friendly devotion is all in the family.

"ACTED WELL THEIR PARTS."

The work of hundreds of local boards throughout the U. S. is drawing to a close. Before many days the men who have served as members of these boards will be formally discharged from the service. It was proposed in congress to pass an appropriation which should provide for the presentation of certain insignia to all board members as an evidence of appreciation of the work done. This measure did not pass. However, members of the local boards have the personal satisfaction of knowing that the general public realizes how large a share of responsibility for the conduct of the war they carried. In most cases the men constituting these boards were compelled to make large personal sacrifices in order to give the board work attention. In their work of carrying out the provisions of the selective draft law and in following the instructions laid down by the provost marshal general they performed a distinct patriotic service, and it is the generally acknowledged fact that they sought to apply the provisions of the law without favor or prejudice. Local board members made a large and distinct contribution to the war service of the country.

Rippling Rhymes

By Walt Mason.

Balmy Days
We've been conserving bread,
We've been conserving grease;
And now we look ahead to bounteous day of peace, when one may eat a pie, and feel no blush of shame; how good to say good by to warfare's dismal game!
How good to put four spoons of sugar in your tea, nor care two pica-yunes who is around to see! When streams were running red with blood of angry foes, I lived on sawdust bread, and pruned and things like those. And if I tried to sneak some sugar or some jam, my wife would wildly shriek, "You're knifing Uncle Sam! You're slacking just as much as some pro-German dub!" It simply beats the Dutch how I must watch the grub! Oh, those were bitter times, dark, tragic, galling years; you noticed how my rymes were dripping salty tears. The bard who's fed on prunes and substitutes for pie, can't put his rymes much zest, tho he may try. If he's deprived of ham, condemned to gnawing bones, he cannot write a psalm that's full of golden tones. The lyre seems dead and dumb, its strings are still and mute, when all the grub is ham, and misery, to boot. But now comes brighter days, with peace, the moon that's sweet, now mark my soaring lays, when I have pies to eat!

C. W. HILTZ A UNIQUE CHARACTER

Newsboy, Chorboy, Gospel Boy Successful—He Has Seen a Varied Life.

A unique character C. W. Hiltz has arrived into our city and has certainly had a varied career. He first saw the light of day in the city of Baltimore, Md., and when the Civil War broke out he was ten years old. He was selling papers and says he sold one to President Lincoln when the great future emancipator was traveling incognito to Washington to avoid copperhead outthroats who were seeking his life. He says he remembers Mr. Lincoln very well and at that time the tall traveler would not have been taken for the president-elect of this great nation.

He says he was in this city and vicinity in the '70's and well remembers doing chores for the senior Gov. Yates, Gov. Palmer, and other well known celebrities. His father was a violent secessionist and when the boy took part in the first campaign for the election of General Grant to the presidency the father cursed him soundly and disowned him.

Was Bold Bad Man.

After staying a while in this vicinity he went west and being of a roving and dare-devil disposition he let his hair grow long and for fifteen years he drank whiskey, swore, rode wild horses and followed a cowboy's life. He facetiously called himself "No-body's Darling" and when he visited Storm Lake, Iowa it took three policemen to hold him in check. He had many fights and in Stanton, Nebraska, he got into a row with a man in a restaurant and threw his antagonist right across the table and had a good oil to pay for broken dishes.

In Storm Lake he went into a clothing store, bought a pair of pants and then pretended the merchant had cheated him out of $3.50 whereupon he chased the clothing vendor all about the place. Finally the proprietor locked the store and stood guard all night with a gun.

He raised a row in a restaurant at Storm Lake and the editor of the paper remonstrated with him and declared they would have a meeting to make arrangements to cause him to behave and he replied by chasing the man of the pencil down the street.

Converted at Starr Lake.

There was hardly any end to his escapades but a stronger power was awaiting him. At Storm Lake, an evangelist, named B. F. Taylor, conducted a revival meeting and there the wild cowboy was soundly converted and the place. Finally the evangelist put a bottle of whiskey in his pocket and carried it for a week without touching the contents.

He accompanied the evangelist three months and then spent a year with Bishop Foss in North Dakota. At Fargo some saloon keepers notified him that if he didn't leave town they would treat him to a coat of tar and feathers but he stayed and saw them put out of business. At Wapidan fifteen saloon keepers warned him to leave town or suffer the consequences but he saw them put out of business. He spent the years from 1904 to 1912 in different States in the temperance cause and claims a good share in the work of putting them in the dry column. He served as city missionary in Sioux City and did much other work.

When he was converted his first thought was to get his mother who had neglected for twenty years. He wrote her a letter which had much to do with her recovery from a severe illness and later he went to see her at her home in Baltimore.

He carries a rather well used telescope and in the center of the top has a picture of President Wilson, one of Abraham Lincoln near it and a lot of small U. S. flags all over it. He is badly crippled in one knee and is well along in years and says he would like to find a place where he could work for his board.

INQUEST HELD

Mention was made yesterday of the death of Mrs. Sarah Jane Cooper, who died from exposure when she attempted to walk to the home of her daughter two miles north of Litterberry. An inquest was held by Joseph Hall deputy coroner, at which Earl Sinclair served as foreman and F. W. Michaels as clerks. The facts brought out at the inquest were as already published. Mrs. Cooper attempted to walk to the Beckum home Tuesday evening and as she was not expected until the following morning no search was made for her. The verdict was that she came to her death from exhaustion sometime between 6 o'clock p. m., on Tuesday and 7 a. m. on Christmas day.

Social Events

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Blimbing Entertain at Dinner.
A Christmas dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Blimbing at their home on South Main street, to their children and grand children. A four-course dinner was served after which an enjoyable afternoon was spent by all present. A Christmas tree adorned the living room.

G. T. S. Club of Markham Held All Day Meeting.
Members of the G. T. S. club of Markham held an all day meeting at the home of Miss Nina Perich of Markham Friday. Dinner was served at noon and the regular business meeting followed. The club voted to adopt a French orphan. There were nine members present and the meeting proved one of interest and profit. The next meeting will be held January 8, at the home of Miss Myrtle Paschall.

Christmas Tree at Emergency Hospital.
At the Red Cross Emergency hospital a Christmas tree was prepared for the children who were patients there at that time. The tree was secured and prepared by the nurses and others interested in the welfare of the patients. The Cannon Produce company donated the tree and Miss Perry, a nurse at Jacksonville State Hospital, purchased the decorations and placed them on the tree. She also dressed a number of dolls, and toys and useful articles were donated by Miss Grassley, Miss Greenleaf, Miss Bratton, another nurse and other friends. The tree was then presented to the little ones and was the source of much pleasure to them.

Justice and Mrs. J. A. Crum Entertain Relatives.
Christmas day Justice and Mrs. J. A. Crum of 234 West North street entertained at turkey dinner with all the trimmings that go with such a repast. Justice Crum has desired for some time to have his brothers at his home on Christmas day and was able to get them there on this occasion. Mrs. Crum was assisted in preparing the dinner by Mrs. Annie Browning of Decatur, a sister of Mrs. W. H. Crum. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Crum, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Crum, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Crum, Mr. and Mrs. Ona Crum, Miss Wilma Crum and Miss Alta Crum, all of Litterberry.

Christmas Dinner Given By Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Phillips.
Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Phillips entertained at a good old fashioned Christmas dinner, turkey and all the good things that go with it. After dinner Santa Claus visited and distributed the bountiful supply of gifts, stacked around the gaily decorated tree. There were four generations represented at this celebration. Those present were: Mrs. J. H. Traylor, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Shield, Mrs. Nellie Strickett, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Maddox and family, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Maddox and family, all of Jacksonville; Mrs. A. B. McLean and sons, of St. Louis; Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Maddox, and family of Curran; Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Maddox and family of Chatham, making a total of thirty guests. The guest of honor being Lieut. Warren B. Maddox of Camp Lewis, Washington. Many of the guests remained all night returning home Thursday hoping they might live to spend many more such Christmases.

OPTIMISTIC ABOUT COMING YEAR

J. G. Berger, of the Overland-Berger Co., is one of the men in Jacksonville who is exceedingly optimistic with regard to the future, and has backed his belief with contracts. Mr. Berger says that he believes that 1919 is going to be the biggest year ever experienced in the automobile and tractor industry, not only thruout the country but right here at home. Farmers have come to realize as never before the fact that power machinery for the farm and power conveyance to and from the places they must visit means actual cash in pocket, and that more and more they consider such purchases as wise investments rather than mere expenditures.

Following his belief Mr. Berger has placed a contract for two hundred of the Overland and Willys-Knight cars, forty to be delivered in the first quarter of 1919. He also has placed a large order for Liberty Sixes and the Moline Universal tractors. As has already been noted in these columns, the Overland-Berger Motor Company will change its firm name to the Berger Motor Company, effective January 1, at which it will be ready to announce to the public its complete organization.

BAKING

The Holiday Season is with us once more and there is much to be thankful for—much that we are most thankful for. One of the least, under the circumstances, is that we can have the use of white flour once more, yet everyone should be thankful for that as well.

During this season more baking than usual is done—bread, pie, cake, etc., and we do not believe you will find a better all-purpose flour than "CAINSON". Every sack guaranteed.

ASTHMA INSTANTLY RELIEVED WITH ASTHMADOR OR MONEY REFUNDED ASK ANY DRUGGIST

THE strong and vigorous man or woman is envied by less fortunate humanity afflicted with aches, pains, infirmities and ailments. The sufferer says to himself, "If I could only be well, how happy I would be," for health is more essential to the joy of living than is wealth.

The kidneys almost literally wash the blood and keep it clean and free from impurities. When the kidneys are out of order, they fail to filter out this waste and poisonous matter. It remains in the system to cause backache, rheumatic pains, sore muscles and stiff joints.

Foley Kidney Pills

help the system eliminate this poisonous waste. They soothe, strengthen and heal sore, weak and diseased kidneys and bladder. When the kidneys are working properly, appetite returns, refreshing sleep is possible, and health and strength come again.

C. W. Smith, 1225 No. 4th St., Salina, Kas., writes: "I am very much pleased with Foley Kidney Pills. I am working in a coal yard and have been very much troubled with my back. I have taken several doses of Foley Kidney Pills and they have already helped me."

Mrs. Lloyd Dane who has been a patient at Springfield hospital has recovered sufficiently to return home; her condition is greatly improved.

Frank Beatty returned from Waukegan where he had been to see his sister, Mrs. W. E. Swift, who is ill from influenza. She is still in a serious condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Smetters of Chicago, are here to spend the holidays with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. John Henniger of Springfield came Monday for several days' visit with relatives.

Willard STORAGE BATTERY SERVICE STATION

Never Put Acid into It

Don't monkey with Acid.

It won't strengthen your battery.

It won't ginger up your starter or brighten your lights.

It won't put fire in your spark.

But it does burn the life out of the plates—increases the need of repairs—makes your battery cost more and makes its life shorter.

If you think your battery needs acid, come in and get an expert opinion.

Ask for a copy of the booklet—"A Mark with a Meaning for You." It tells a vital story.

We test, repair and recharge batteries, and always carry a full supply of battery parts, new batteries and rental batteries.

FRITCHIEY TRIED OFTEN FOR ARMY SERVICE

After Three Failures to Pass Examination Entered Enthusiastically Into Y. M. C. A. Work.

The Olney Daily Mail gives in a recent issue a nattering letter from W. R. McNutt, divisional secretary Y. M. C. A., written at Blois, France. In this letter the secretary gives a great deal of praise to Paul Fritchey, the former secretary of the Jacksonville chamber of commerce, for his interest and enthusiasm shown at the war front. Mr. Fritchey tried to get into several branches of army service but failed in each case because of defective vision. It was then that he determined to enter Y. M. C. A. service. The letter, which is published as addresser to Mrs. Fritchey, copies of the Olney paper have been received here by George T. Douglas and a number of other friends of Mr. Fritchey.

Blois, France, Nov. 24, 1918. Dear Mrs. Fritchey: This letter, dear lady, contains no bad news. It is a feeble means chosen by me for the purpose of telling you about the work of your son, Paul B. After having worked with him now for nearly a year, and having observed his fine loyalty to the Y. M. C. A. task, I am very happy now to write his mother and say that no mother in old Illinois, has made a finer contribution to this great work than have you. Paul has been since his arrival in France, steadily at this camp, where everybody knows him, where he is affectionately called "Barbara," or "Barb" for short. I wonder if you think that name any improvement on the one you gave him? Well, the soldiers like it better.

No Y. M. C. A. Division in France enrolls a more faithful and able worker than Paul. He is always on hand when there is work to be done, and he seems to have a sort of genius for finding work. I've heard of folk who were called "hogs for work." I never met one of that kind until I met "Barb." He belongs to that herd, we have all agreed.

Don't let anyone make you believe that land is going to depreciate in value for it is not. We are guaranteed prices on our wheat and we are going to have the largest export trade ever known to all parts of the world. The demand for our grain and meats and provisions will be unparalleled in the history of the United States. There is more money and securities in the United States than we have ever had. Land is already beginning to advance and buyers are getting thicker every day.

Come in and buy while you can get what you want.

Illinois 56 307 Ayers Bank Bldg. Bell 265

Just one complaint. Mother Fritchey, have we ever felt like bringing against your son? he has that contagious get-to-the-front fever, several attacks of it. Three times he has tried to enlist in the army in one branch of its service or another, and has as often been rejected. Each time I have rejoiced. Then several times he has insisted on going to the front for canteen service in the trenches, but since he could not move without a movement order from me, and since I have refused to issue him such a document, he has remained. The fact is I have felt that he is indispensable to the service of the tens of thousands whom we have an obligation to minister to.

But Mrs. Fritchey, Paul, is over with that now, and we have entered him here as long as a soldier wearing Khaki passes thru these parts. I thank you, and the Y. M. C. A. thanks you, and thousands of soldiers thank you for loaning to France, Paul "Barbara" Fritchey.

Sincerely,
W. R. McNutt,
Divisional Secretary.

WORKING ON RECORDS IN LOCAL BOARD OFFICE

Final Instructions To Be Given at Springfield Conference Monday—Local Board Will Be Represented.

Very little of news interest is happening these days in the office of the local board, altho a good deal of work is in progress there. Instructions are received from time to time from the adjutant general's office and the compilation of records is progressing. The rules provide for a record of every registered man and when all these are completed they will be sealed and transmitted to office of the adjutant general.

There is a "cover" for each registrant and the subject matter within varies according to the age of the men and the time of registration. The blanks to be filled out and numbered, placed within covers for men above the age of 36 have just been received. Some of the covers will include questionnaires and for the others the blanks will be of comparatively small size.

The total number of individuals records compiled here will be 6,141. In the registration on June 1917, there were 2,397 men registered, in June and August 1918 there were 248 and in Sept. 1918 there were 3,496. These figures amount to the total already quoted.

Next Monday a conference on representatives of local and district boards will be held in the office of the adjutant general in Springfield. Boards from central and southern Illinois will be represented and at that time Major Tolman, disbursing officer in the adjutant general's office will explain further procedure in the matter of records. The purpose of the conference is to have the board members understand certain points which will make possible absolute uniformity of record work. W. D. Doying, secretary of the local board, and Miss Genevieve Mount, chief clerk, will attend the conference. One of a similar character was held in Chicago yesterday for the district and local boards of northern Illinois.

MERRITT CHURCH SERVICES.

There will be services at the Methodist church in Merritt Sunday at 7 p. m. The pastor will preach a New Year sermon on, "All Things New". All are cordially invited.

MISS PRIEST RECEIVES LICENSE PLATE

What is perhaps the first 1919 auto license number plate received in Jacksonville was obtained Friday by Miss Eula Priest, daughter of C. N. Priest, of Ford Man. The number is 1779, and was immediately placed on the young lady's Ford Sedan.

The 1919 license number plates are the same size as those of former years, with white figures on a brown background and are attractively designed.

XMAS FESTIVITIES AT LITERBERRY

Numerous Family Dinner Parties Took Place in Neighborhood—Influenza Patients Improving—Other Neighborhood News Notes.

Literberry, Dec. 27.—Our bell boy was busy Christmas morning answering rings. Santa Claus and his helpers were our callers. First came some children's Christmas greetings.

Second, came the post boy with an armful of pretty colored Christmas cards; he left some of them at our door and hiked for the neighbors on the north.

Third was a call from Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Crum, with Merry greetings and best wishes.

Fourth, came the candy boys, Landis and Eugene Young, with a basket filled boxes of good homemade candy, all sizes, colors and kinds; after leaving a part for us, they treated "North Literberry," we suppose.

At 11 o'clock Mr. J. M. Litter called and left us a plate on pumpkin pie and Christmas cake; how is that for neighbors? We certainly appreciate this brotherly kindness-spirit, and can recommend the Literberry people as good neighbors.

In the afternoon, Miss Amanda Hixon was delivering Christmas packages on our street and as late as four o'clock that day we saw Santa Claus going south with a 'set of old-fashioned saddle bags filled with Christmas goodies. Surely this has been a very happy Christmas. Those entertaining with family dinners were: Mr. and Mrs. John Hitches, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Litter, who also had a fine tree full of presents for the children; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Young gave a family dinner with everything of the best and in great abundance; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Daniels and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Litter all ate dinner together. There were several other big spreads in and around our town, all up-to-date, and in the Christmas spirit.

Mrs. Jennie McFarland went to Jacksonville on Saturday. Last week Mrs. Lizzie Ennis entertained her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Butcher, from Virginia, and Mrs. Clarence Hopkins and daughter Celeste from Beardstown.

Miss Louise Ray, who has been in Jacksonville for two weeks has returned to her home at Bonnie Doon Cottage. According to our latest report, those who have been sick with the influenza, are getting along all right. No new cases up to date.

D. K. McCarty is recovering from an attack of malaria. Word has been received from Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Streeter of Indianapolis, Iowa, who are now old people. The Streeters are natives of Morgan County and will be remembered by the old settlers. Mrs. Streeter was Miss Elzadia Long and has some relatives in Cass County.

BIRTH RECORD

Born, this (Saturday) morning to Mr. and Mrs. Herman Ellis, 585 Caldwell street, a son.

MRS. MASTERS BETTER

A telegram received yesterday by Frank M. Masters of Lynville, N. C., stated that his daughter-in-law, Mrs. James Masters, who has been very ill, is now improving. Mrs. Masters lives at Sand Point, Idaho and her condition has been critical.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

MARKHAM

By Ensley Moore
(Member Illinois State Historical Society)

People dwelling in cities often fail to realize that other and smaller localities have history as well as geographical position, and that their history is worth considering. In fact the outlying and rural places frequently are the makers of the cities. Chicago did not count for much before our southern Illinois people drove Black Hawk out of northern Illinois, altho its position on the lake was, no doubt, its greatest commercial asset. And Jacksonville owes much to the fine people of the rural parts of Morgan county for business and for the accumulated capital brought here by farmers who find in it a place of rest for their declining years after successful business careers.

Markham, six miles west of the Wabash Railway, has its interest not only to those who have dwelt there, but also to any one seeking to know all the history of Morgan county.

This station on the first railway ever built in the state of Illinois may be called the capital of Section 15 North, Range 11 West of the 3rd Principal Meridian, Morgan county, Illinois. The railroad divides the township about equally, north and south, and it comes up to the township of Jacksonville on the west line of the latter.

The Mound. The elevation known as The Mound, together with Allison's Mound, further west, approached from this city by the alluring road of that name, is in this township.

The Deatons were among the early settlers of this sub-division of this county, in the northeast part of the township, and "The Red Brick Schoolhouse" has been a well known landmark since the early days. It was not only a gathering place for children, but their elders gathered there for preaching and for Sabbath school. The writer had charge of the Sabbath school there in 1867, and his father had to do with one in the same building, a generation or thereabouts, before him.

Farther north and west, across the Mauvaisterre, is Allison's Mill.

The County Farm, with its creditable lay out for the unfortunate or afflicted. In this Morgan county stands among the best provided for in Illinois. It was established about 1864.

The First Settlement. In this township was made by Robert James Deaton in 1820, three years before the county was established. Adam Allison came in 1822, then Abraham Johnson, Jonathan Cobbs, Judge Aaron Willson, Isaac Smith, Stephen Olmstead, Jedediah Webster, Seymour and Elisha Kellogg, Andrew Patten, Robt. Beard, Isaac and Isaac Reaves fared along and settled. Rev. Mr. Granville preached the first sermon in James Deaton's cabin in 1822. The first death was that of the wife of D. Lanman. The first justice of the peace was Joseph H. Bates. The township had many English people among its earliest dwellers.

Jacob Strawn, the great farmer had his elegant home and almost boundless acres in the southern part of this section. The County Farm, with its creditable lay out for the unfortunate or afflicted. In this Morgan county stands among the best provided for in Illinois. It was established about 1864.

FUNERALS

Cleary. Funeral services for William D. Cleary were held from the Church of Our Savior at 9 o'clock Friday morning. Solemn requiem high mass was said by the Rev. Father F. F. Formaz and a large number of relatives and friends gathered to bear the services. The many beautiful flowers were cared for by friends. The bearers were: John McGinnis, N. A. Tarzwell, Jerry Flynn, John Robinson, Thomas Maloney and Michael Casey. Burial was in Calvary cemetery.

Cooper. Funeral services for the late Mrs. Jane Cooper were held Friday morning at 10 o'clock from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Beckum, near Literberry. Rev. Max B. Wiles, pastor of the Presbyterian church in Virginia, officiated. The floral offerings were in charge of Mrs. James Mastin. Interment was in Arcadia cemetery, the bearers being Edward A. L. Chapman, James Mastin and Earl Sinclair.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Phelps have gone to Florida to make a stay of several months for the benefit of Mrs. Phelps' health.

MOTHERS, DO THIS—

When the Children Cough, Rub Musterole on Throats and Chests

No telling how soon the symptoms may develop into cough or worse. And then when you're glad you have a jar of Musterole at hand to give prompt, sure relief. It does not blister.

As first aid and a certain remedy, Musterole is excellent. Thousands of mothers know it. You should keep a jar in the house, ready for instant use.

It is the remedy for adults, too. Relieves sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, chilblains, frosted feet and colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

30c and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.

A PATRIOTIC FAMILY.

James Williams, an industrious colored man of this city, is proud of the fact that he has four nephews in the service and all across the seas. They are Louis and James Mitchell of Kentucky, Lem Jenkins of Kansas City and Ben Offut of Cincinnati, Ohio. They are all in the transportation department and have seen lively times taking ammunition and supplies to the men in the trenches. Often seeing shells drop near them but so far their lives have been spared. Mr. Williams says Louis Mitchell is so pleased with France he is thinking of staying there.

Edward Stanley of Joy Prairie was a city caller yesterday.

FROM COUNTY AGENT'S OFFICE

When the Boys Come Back

Many of these are farmer boys who will begin where they left off. Others have worked as farm hands and would like a place to work right away. Would it not be a good plan to insure the right sort of labor next spring by giving these men employment during the winter months? If this is not done many of these will seek other positions and be lost to the farm. This office is a free employment bureau for farm labor. Farmers are requested to file their applications for help early.

Branch Offices—As winter approaches it will be the policy of the county agent to spend one or two days each month at the various community centers in the county where it will be convenient for the farmers to consult him. In general the membership will be notified by circular letter and press notices concerning the places and dates. December 30th and 31st are the respective dates on which he will be at Murfreesboro and Waverly.

Winter Meetings—The executive committee has planned for a general meeting of the club members at Jacksonville as soon as the "flu" ban is completely lifted. Other meetings at various community centers will be arranged as fast as health conditions will warrant. It is the intention to make the social side of these meetings a prominent feature.

Burning Chinch Bugs—In Randolph County, the county agent at a demonstration meeting burned off a bunch of grass with apparently good results. Before burning it was estimated that each bunch of grass contained from 50 to 200 bugs. After burning eight or ten bunches of grass they were cut off below the ground and examined. One bunch showed 6 live bugs; two or three others two apiece; while in several others not a live bug could be found. The county agent estimated that 90% of the bugs were destroyed by the burning.

G. W. Elledge of Chambersburg was among the callers in the city yesterday.

CROP PROSPECTS GOOD IN GREENE CO.

Daughter of Henry Littleton Dies—Ned Fahey Home After Twenty Years Absence—Death of Douglas Edwards Recorded.

White Hall, Dec. 27.—Winter wheat in this section promises well, but the early sown wheat will doubtless be much better than the later sown. Wheat sown in September is showing too much growth to equal that sown in October. There will probably be more than the usual amount of spring wheat in the Illinois bottoms, west of White Hall, according to reports from that section. Estimates over a wide area show the corn crop to be hardly half a crop. Oats made two-thirds of a crop. Rye is good. There was an average crop of apples in this great apple district.

There seems to be considerable favorable sentiment for holding a Dairy Day demonstration in White Hall next year. If the canvass of all the milk producers shows like sentiment, arrangements for such an occasion will probably proceed.

The second death in the family of Harry Littleton within a week occurred at five o'clock Thursday morning when a daughter, aged 6 years, succumbed to a combination of whooping cough and pneumonia. The little girl, three years of age, died from the same cause, and was buried last Monday. The only remaining child, a daughter, age eight years, is slightly ill with the cough.

For the first time in twenty-one years, Ned Fahey called on old home friends this week. He left White Hall at the time of the gold fever in Alaska, and his mother and two brothers, Will and James, followed the latter not going as far into the interior of the gold country as Ned. All returned to Washington state a few years ago, excepting Ned, who remained at Nome until about five years ago, and he has since been a resident of Utah, engaged in the hotel business. The mother died a few years ago. The boys are all well remembered among the early pioneer characters of their day. Ned was in St. Louis on business, and embraced the opportunity to run up.

Mrs. Annette Cheney arrived from the east this week, and has taken rooms for the winter with Mrs. W. P. Lowenstein in order to be near her mother, Mrs. Sarah A. Higbee, now 96 years of age, and who has every appearance of reaching the hundred mark. Mrs. Cheney has a son, Major Charles Bridges, who is a member of Pershing's general staff, and she is daily expecting interesting advice from him. There will be big doings when Major Bridges gets back to this old town of White Hall, but it now appears that this will be a year hence. Douglas Edwards, aged about sixty years, a native of White Hall township, died shortly before six o'clock Thursday morning. He was the father of a large family of boys, including Dr. Orville Edwards of Roodhouse, an army surgeon with the rank of lieutenant; former sheriff Jesse Edwards, now a resident of Roodhouse; Lieut. Adrian C. Edwards, one of the first Greene county boys to be killed in action in France and whose letter to his mother before going into battle with little hope of escaping with his life furnishes one of the valuable contributions to war literature. He was a practicing attorney at Carrollton when he enlisted. The deceased had been an invalid for many years being incapacitated by a stroke of lightning and required constant care.

Mrs. James Youngblood, a victim of pneumonia, died Wednesday night at her home in the north part of town. Her husband is a fireman on the C. & A. out of Roodhouse.

BLUFFS RESIDENT CALLED TO TEXAS

Fred Mueller Goes to San Antonio To Be With Brother Who Is Seriously Ill—Chester Burbank Receives Honorable Discharge from Army Service—Other News Notes.

Bluffs, Dec. 27.—Squire Arundell, who has been in training for limited army service in Virginia, arrived on a seven days' furlough to spend the holidays with his mother, Mrs. Anna Arundell.

Chester Burbank has received his honorable discharge and arrived from a camp in Georgia in time to eat his Christmas dinner at home.

Fred Mueller was called to San Antonio, Texas, by the serious illness of his brother Oscar, who is at the training camp near that city.

Irwin Burbank of Minneapolis, Minn., is visiting his father, James Burbank and other relatives in the vicinity of Bluffs.

Miss Grace McLaughlin of Dallas City, is the guest of relatives here. She will also visit friends in Jacksonville the latter part of the week.

The "flu" situation is improving greatly, as few new cases are being reported.

Mr. and Mrs. George Graham have returned from Chicago where they have been visiting for the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ritchie and two grand-children of Saybrook, are guests of the Dr. C. A. Evans' household.

Mrs. Thomas Reid was a Springfield visitor Tuesday.

Charles Fitzsimmons and Martin Lovekamp are the latest "flu" victims. Both are out of town residents.

Every little girl and many little boys here possess a brand new Christmas doll, and each one is strictly "American made."

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Fenton Robinson on Christmas Day, a daughter, third child.

CHAPIN

The students of the Chapin high school pledged themselves to take a French orphan for one year.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Onken from Camp Taylor spent Christmas with friends and relatives here.

Howard Joy, Walter Unken, E. Vernet spent a few days furlough with friends here but will soon return to Camp.

Donald Pond of Meredosia spent a few days last week with friends and relatives here.

Mrs. Henson of Litchfield is working at the depot for P. McNeal, who is ill with influenza at his home in Jacksonville.

Lee Stowson of Winchester spent Christmas with home folks.

Homer Anderson and family of Beardstown spent Christmas with relatives here.

Miss Smith spent Christmas with relatives in Jacksonville.

REV. C. G. CANTRALL REMOVES TO CHAPIN

Minister to Take Up Work of New Charge January 5—Donald Henderson Suffers Second Attack of Influenza at Camp Grant—Other Concord News Items.

Concord, Dec. 28.—Arthur Nergenah has returned from Camp Taylor and has received his honorable discharge from the service.

Taylor Alderson came home from Camp Taylor on Tuesday, but has to return on Saturday.

Minister C. G. Cantrell moved to Chapin on Monday. He will deliver his farewell sermon here on Sunday morning.

A good attendance is desired. He will begin his work at Chapin on the first Sunday in January. Their two years' residence here have been years of very pleasant association. They have the very best wishes of the entire community.

Donald Henderson writes from Camp Grant that he has been sick again, with a second attack of the "flu". He soon recovered, and says the boys are all getting over it quicker than before, due to the fact that the doctors are more experienced. He does not expect his discharge until about Dec. 15th.

DR. CARSON CONVALESCENT

Friends of the Rev. Dr. D. G. Carson of Pawnee, stated clerk of the Presbytery of Springfield, will be glad to know that his health is greatly improved so that he expects to resume his pulpit soon.

Dr. Carson had an operation some weeks ago, and blood poison set in so that his friends felt quite anxious about him for some time.

SHOT OFF A FINGER

HAVE DISCHARGES FROM THE ARMY RECORDED

An Important Matter That Should Have Attention of All Men from the Army or Navy.

The matter of recording the discharges of returned soldiers and sailors is one that should have immediate attention. At the close of the Civil War blank forms were printed and bound in books and placed in the offices of recorders and any soldier who had a discharge could take it there and have it recorded the same as a deed or mortgage. The importance of this matter cannot be too fully urged. All know the uncertainty of human events. The young man's discharge may be put away in his trunk, in the stand or bureau drawer or a thousand and one places and in course of time a great majority of them will be lost.

There is no doubt but that our present county board would be willing and glad to provide for the soldiers of the late war the same facilities for recording discharges that were afforded the veterans of the War of the Rebellion and the matter should be taken up in an effective manner. The expense would be very small and special provision might be made to reduce the expense.

THOMAS TIVNEN FOUND DEAD FRIDAY EVENING

Resident of City for More Than Sixty Years Found Dead in Bed at Home, 230 North Mauvaisterre Street — Coroner Rose Held Inquest.

Thomas Tivnen, a resident of Jacksonville for over sixty years, was found dead in bed at his home, 230 North Mauvaisterre street, about 7:30 o'clock Friday evening.

The body was discovered by Mrs. Emma Hamm, a neighbor, and her son, and Joseph Tivnen, a son of the deceased. They had attempted to arouse someone by knocking but being unable to do so tried the door. Finding it unlocked they entered the house and discovered the body of Mr. Tivnen in the bed.

Examination showed that life was extinct. They immediately notified Merchants' Policeman B. R. Murgatroyd, who accompanied them to the residence. After an examination of the body Murgatroyd notified Coroner Rose and the body was removed to the undertaking parlors of John H. O'Donnell. It was evident that death occurred several hours before the body was found.

Jury Heard Testimony.
Coroner Rose immediately empaneled the following jury and held an inquest: R. W. Leggett, foreman; Carl Reuter, N. F. Reid, Robert Clayton, D. R. Murgatroyd, and Bennie L. Stice, clerk.

The testimony of Mrs. Hamm, who resides at 236 North Mauvaisterre street, was that she went in company with her son and Joseph Tivnen to the residence of the deceased. After trying to arouse Mr. Tivnen they entered the house and striking a light found him in bed dead. They notified Patrolman Murgatroyd. The witness stated that the last time she saw Mr. Tivnen was on Monday and that he apparently was in good health at that time.

Joseph F. Tivnen, a son of the deceased, said that his father had been in the habit of taking his meals at his home and that when he missed three meals he became uneasy and went to investigate finding his father dead. Witness said that he last saw his father alive on Thursday evening. In response to a question, witness said that his father had appeared to be in his usual good health on Thursday evening and that he had never known him to have any sickness.

After hearing the evidence and examining the body, which apparently was frozen, the jury returned a verdict that death resulted from exposure.

Thomas Tivnen was 67 years of age and had resided in this city for over sixty years, all of which had been spent in the residence, 230 North Mauvaisterre street, where he died. For many years he was a section man for the Chicago & Alton railroad.

Besides his widow he is survived by the following children: Mrs. Anna Large, Mrs. Ralph Stringam, Joseph F. and Agnes Tivnen of this city and Thomas Tivnen of Los Angeles, Calif.

No arrangements have as yet been made for the funeral.

CLARK L. GREEN.

JOHN HICKMAN PASSED AWAY FRIDAY MORNING

Resident of County for More Than Sixty Years Dies of Blood Poisoning After Brief Illness—Funeral Will Be Held Sunday Morning.

A venerable and highly respected citizen of Ebenezer neighborhood, John Edward Hickman, passed away at Our Savior's hospital at 6:45 o'clock Friday morning. He had been ill but a few days. He was in the city Dec. 17th, and ate dinner with his sister, Mrs. John Lambert on West College avenue and seemed well as usual. Next day he had a chill but still thought there was nothing serious and remained at home a day longer when his friends insisted on his coming to the home of Mrs. Lambert where all that was possible was done for him.

Soon after his first attack a small sore appeared on his hand and it developed into a severe case of blood poisoning which no medical skill could avert. It was deemed best to remove him to the hospital where he passed away.

Born Near Pittsburgh.
Mr. Hickman was the son of Edward and Mary Hickman and was born January 8, 1848 in a suburb of Pittsburgh, Penn. called the Western Iron Works. When he was eight years old his parents moved to this locality where the remainder of his life has been spent.

He received a good common school education and was a constant reader and a man of excellent general intelligence. He had a great love of curios and interesting objects from other lands and had quite a collection in his home about five miles north west of the city in the Ebenezer neighborhood.

He lived alone in his little house on his tiny farm for thirty one years with the exception of a time spent as engineer at the State School for the Blind. He was not a hermit; by no means misanthropic or anxious to be alone but on the contrary delighted to have company and he was so popular that many times the young people would walk in or his unannounced and were always welcome and often he would invite them to come to see him and he was a good entertainer and well skilled in making other happy and was especially fond of children.

Was Gifted Musician.
He was also quite a musician and in his younger days devoted much time to the art. At one at Ebenezer church there was a protracted meeting continuing several weeks during which he served as organist and so acceptable were his services the church people gave him a handsome bible in token of their appreciation. He was fond of poultry and had a fine lot of chickens on his place and was much devoted to them.

It was a source of much regret to his sister, Mrs. Lambert and family, that he persisted in living alone for the most cordial and tender feelings ever existed between them but he said he felt better satisfied in his little home doing his own way than the large and her daughters went to see him frequently and were immediately at his side as soon as they learned of his indisposition but he would not leave his home for two days after he was taken ill.

Mrs. Lambert also expressed her appreciation of the kindness of Mr. Hickman's neighbors in general and of his nearest neighbor, Walker Henderson, in particular. Their kindness was constant.

He was good to his neighbors in turn and last summer turned out and helped them in the harvest field making a full hand and enjoying the work and standing it all right.

Married in 1866.

Mr. Hickman married June 16, 1866 to Miss Mary Wagler, a lovely and accomplished lady but death claimed her in a year leaving her a sorrowing widow alone. He is survived by his sister, Mrs. John Lambert, 1229 West College avenue; a brother, Samuel I. Hickman, of Los Angeles, California; and the following nieces, Misses Ada and Mary Lambert, of this city; Miss Ella Rule and Mrs. Mamie Hickman McKean, both of Moorcroft, Wyoming; Mrs. Ruth Brown of Los Angeles, California; Mrs. Delia Preston of Los Angeles and three grand-nieces.

The funeral will be conducted at Ebenezer church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock by the Rev. J. O. Kirkpatrick, pastor of the church which Mr. Hickman was so long a faithful member.

Among the speakers will be Rev. E. L. Fletcher, district superintendent, and Edward G. Saye, chairman of the "Methodist Minute Men."

CONGREGATIONALISTS IN ANNUAL MEETING

Officers Elected, Cafeteria Supper Enjoyed—Reports Read and General Business Transacted.

The 85th annual meeting of the Congregational church was held last evening in the lecture room of the church with a good attendance. The first number of the affair was supper and that was truly a feast. Each family brought a liberal allowance and all was arranged on a long table. The menu was varied and excellent, all served in cafeteria style.

Business followed when the pastor was chosen moderator of the meeting and called for minutes of the last meeting which were read by the capable clerk, Miss Marion Fairbank, and then the reports of the various activities of the church were called for.

Reports Made.
They were as follows:
Clerk, Miss Marion Fairbank.
Pastor, Rev. W. E. Collins.
Treasurer, J. Allerton Palmer.
Benevolences treasurer, Mrs. James I. Barrows.
Combined benevolences, Miss Georgia Fairbank.
Sunday school, A. D. Fairbank.
The church ally, Miss Gladys Knapp.
The Brotherhood, Earl Spink.
Woman's Home Missionary Society, Mrs. F. J. Waddell.
Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, Miss May Dummer.
Mission Study Circle, Mrs. E. M. Coe.
Red Cross Unit, Mrs. L. S. Doane.
Camp Fire Girls, Senior, Mrs. F. J. Helm.
Camp Fire Girls, Junior, Miss U. Spink.
Rhoades Memorial Library, Librarian, Miss Georgia Fairbank.
Rhoades Memorial Library, treasurer, J. P. Lippincott.
Ladies' Aid Society, Mrs. Hutchinson.
Prudential committee, R. P. Joy.
Trustees, C. H. Ward.

Election.
Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:
Prudential committee—R. P. Joy, H. M. Capps, A. D. Fairbank, Earl Spink, and H. L. Caldwell.
Treasurer—Earl Spink.
Clerk—Miss Marion Fairbank.
Benevolences treasurer—Mrs. E. M. Coe.
Deacon—L. S. Doane.
Passavant hospital trustees—Dr. C. E. Black and S. W. Nichols.
Sunday school superintendent—Ebenezer Spink.

Notes.
A very interesting letter from the missionary pastor, Rev. L. J. Christian of Poochow, China, was read.

The fiscal year of the church was changed to end December first of each year.

Miss Marion Fairbank, Mrs. J. P. Lippincott, Mrs. Frances Wood and Miss S. M. Fairbank were made committee to send greetings from the church to Rev. F. S. Hayden, D. D., Rev. R. O. Post, D. D., former pastors; to Rev. L. J. Christian, missionary pastor; Miss Susan Ellis, Mrs. Delia True, Miss Mary Rhoads and Mrs. H. H. Hall.

The great importance of more work among the young people was expressed in several speeches and it was voted to appoint a special committee of five to consider this matter. The pastor and the prudential committee were requested to nominate that committee to the church for its approval at a future meeting.

Jan. 8th was named as the date for the annual roll call. In round numbers the church has raised for all purposes, Sunday school, missionary societies and all other organizations about $4500. The past year and the prudential committee reported the year closing without a deficit and a small surplus.

The meeting was particularly harmonious and enthusiastic and the outlook is certainly encouraging. The report showed that over $500 had been spent in improvements at the parsonage. Before adjournment a purse of $12 was given to the faithful janitor, Reuben Hyatt.
